

A light blue rectangular area containing a vertical white line on the left side. To the right of this line, there is a white circular postmark stamp with wavy lines extending to the left. Below the stamp, there are five horizontal white lines for writing.